- Able to dedicate time to UVFA
- Strong organization and leadership skills.
- Ability to manage a team of volunteers.
- Consistent communication and timely follow-through.
- Creativity and initiative in improving project quality.
- Commitment to at least one semester of leadership

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Oversee day-to-day operations of your assigned project.
- Guide volunteers and ensure tasks are completed on time.
- Maintain content quality (lesson delivery for Kindness Curriculum, posts for Tales of Tails).
- Coordinate schedules, partnerships, or posting timelines.
- Communicate regularly with the UVFA leadership team.
- Track progress and provide short monthly summaries or reports.
- Uphold UVFA's mission, voice, and values across all project activities.
- Collaborate with the project's volunteers to design lessons, flyers, info posters for Kindness Curriculum
- Plan outlines for posts on Tales of Tails

WHAT YOU GAIN:

- Leadership and project management experience.
- Community service hours and verified volunteer roles.
- Stronger communication and problem-solving abilities.
- Direct impact on community education and animal advocacy.
- Priority consideration for higher UVFA roles.
- A standout leadership position for your college applications.
- Volunteer certificate upon successful term
