

Tales of Tails Authors

Application form: APPLY NOW

ROLE OVERVIEW:

Tales of Tails volunteer authors create impactful stories, articles, and posts that raise awareness about animal welfare, responsible pet care, and UVFA's mission.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Age 13–22 (anywhere in the world)
- Able to dedicate time to UVFA
- Strong writing skills and interest in storytelling or journalism.
- Passion for animals and community education.
- Ability to meet deadlines and follow posting guidelines.
- Willingness to incorporate feedback and edit drafts.
- Commitment to at least 1 piece per month (flexible).

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Write short articles, stories, or informational posts for the blog.
- Research topics related to animal welfare, adoption, safety, and kindness.
- Create educational and engaging content that aligns with UVFA's voice.
- Submit drafts on time and revise based on feedback.
- Collaborate with the Project Lead on content themes and posting schedules.
- Uphold accuracy, empathy, and respect in all written work.

WHAT YOU GAIN:

- Real writing experience published on a global awareness platform.
- A portfolio of articles for future applications or opportunities.
- Improved research, storytelling, and communication skills.
- Community service hours for volunteer work.
- Collaboration with UVFA project leads.
- A unique extracurricular for college and scholarship applications.

JOIN US

Make a real impact. Build your leadership. Help animals and your community.

Apply using this form

Email: uvfa.org@gmail.com

For more info visit: unitedvoicesforanimals.org